Building a Life in the Ancient Heart of Morocco. When Suzanna Clarke and her husband bought a dilapidated house in the Moroccan town of Fez, their friends thought they were mad. Located in a maze of donkey-trod alleyways, the house - a traditional riad - was beautiful but in desperate need of repair.

Dar Bennis is a small 18 th century traditional Moroccan house in the heart of the Fes medina, on a small street just off Talaa Sghira, the main business street of the medieval quarter of Fez. The house has been carefully restored over the past four years, using only traditional craftsmanship and materials.
