Lady Star Sir Edward Series

Etymology. Sir derives from the honorific title sire; sire developed alongside the word seigneur, also used to refer to a feudal lord.Both derived from the Vulgar Latin senior, sire comes from the nominative case declension senior and seigneur, the accusative case declension seniôrem.. The form 'Sir' is first documented in English in 1297, as the title of honour of a knight, and latterly a ...
